WONDER HOW RYDER CUP CHAMPIONS CELEBRATE...

Find out in the book Two Good Rounds- 19th Hole Stories for the World's Greatest Golfers by Elisa Gaudet, now available on www.Amazon.com/uk in hardcover and on Kindle.

Luke Donald, Graeme McDowell, Lee Westwood, Pádraig Harrington, Darren Clarke and many more share their stories.

Everybody loves a celebration, and golfers are no exception. It has long been a tradition after a round of golf to gather together and celebrate a win or merely enjoy the company of friends, new and old, with a second round at “the 19th hole,” a slang term used in golf that refers to a pub, bar, or restaurant on or near the golf course. Two Good Rounds is an international tribute to 36 of the world's greatest male and female golfers and golf lifestyle, which often includes the enjoyment of drinks. In each chapter, golf writer Elisa Gaudet asks a notable professional golfer the same questions: What is your favorite drink? What is your favorite clubhouse, grill room or 19th hole? A special time, memory or celebration from a 19th hole? If you ever got a hole in one and if you bought the clubhouse a drink?

This fun, feel-good respectful look inside the lives of Tour pro's yields a wide array of answers ranging from crazy celebrations after a win to heartfelt memories of childhoods spent playing golf with family and friends. From the Arnold Palmer (½ lemonade, ½ iced tea) to the Guinness (the preferred drink of tour star Darren Clarke), to Luke Donald's own wine brand and Graeme McDowell's celebration after his US Open win. Socializing, enjoying friends and family and golf are inextricably linked and this fun feel good golf book, Two Good Rounds, shows you how.

Makes a great holiday gift and a treasure for any golfer.
